Additional Information on Starting Salaries

Question from the Commission on DPD Department requested Budget FY 2020-2021

What does the budget include in regard to the Detroit Police Officers starting level wages?

Answer:

Since 2015, Mayor Duggan and Chief Craig have re-opened the police contracts twice and the results are as follow:

The starting pay for police officers was increased from $31,700 in FY 2015 to $40,732 effective 7/1/19 (28.5% increase to date).

For the FY21 (starting 07/01/2020) police officer pay increases another 2.5% to bring the (starting pay to $41,750.*

Added another year to the existing contract. (Current DPOA contract runs through the end of FY22).

On 7/1/21, starting pay goes up another 2.5% to $42,794 (so by end of current contract, that's a 35% increase vs. 2015)

Other compensation factors:

Pay is also 2% higher with 2 years of college credit.

Pay is 2.5% higher for qualifying officers on special patrol assignments.

City pays up to $2,000 as a tuition reimbursement for undergraduate or graduate studies.

City pays their salaries while the officers go through the Police Academy.
